

Did you know that a UNION-BUSTER

lives in your neighborhood?

THAT'S RIGHT!

At 1336 Q Street, N.W., is the home of Alexander Kummant. He's the president of Amtrak. For over seven years now employees of Amtrak have been operating under an expired labor agreement.

WHY?

Because Mr. Kummant and the rest of the board of Amtrak refuse to bargain fairly with the unions that represent the 18,000 employees of Amtrak.

Tell Mr. Kummant to be a good neighbor and better corporate citizen. His home is just down the block at 1336 Q Street, N.W.

Amtrak employees and their unions deserve to participate in collective bargaining over their contract.
