

IT'S TIME TO

Restore Workers' Freedom

To Form Unions and Bargain for a Better Life

Working people are struggling to get by, and America's middle class is disappearing. But when workers try to form unions and bargain for a better life, corporations use coercion and harassment to stop them. The Employee Free Choice Act would restore workers' freedom to decide for themselves—without employer intimidation—whether to form unions and bargain for better wages, benefits and a voice on the job.

The Employee Free Choice Act would:

- Establish stronger penalties when companies violate the rights of workers forming unions and negotiating first contracts.
- Provide mediation and arbitration when workers and the employer can't agree on a first contract.
- Allow workers to form unions and bargain once a majority signs authorization cards.
